Robert (Bob) Oliver Walker, of South Charleston, passed away on January 10, 2018, at his home surrounded by his family. Although he was not formally a Catholic, he attended Mass at Blessed Sacrament very faithfully with Pat.

Bob was born on May 25, 1938, in Charleston, WV. He was a graduate of Charleston High School in 1956 where he was All-State in Football and went on to play for three years at Indiana University. He continued to play professionally for the Charleston Rockets, starting for their undefeated 1965 and 1966 seasons. Bob returned to South Charleston where he worked for the South Charleston Fire Department for 25 years, and served as Captain. Bob continued his service to the City of South Charleston as the Circuit Court Clerk for 25 additional years. Bob had a love for cars and his hobbies included restoring older models, corvettes being his favorite. He was a certified Southern Ohio Valley Corvette restorer and judge. Bob was an active member of the car community in WV as a part of the Rod Run Do Wop Car Show Judging Committee, where he was recently inducted into the Drag Racing Hall of Fame in the summer of 2017.

Bob was preceded in death by his mother, Almeda Walker; father, Ira Elliot Walker; his siblings, Faith Samples, Holly Samples, Crede Samples, Cledith Miller, Chuck Walker, David Walker and Lorn Walker.

Bob is survived by his loving wife, Patricia Lee Walker; his children, Robert Oliver Walker Jr., David Walker (Kathleen), Christy Nelson (Nathan); his grandchildren, Kinsey Walker, Karley Walker, Shawn Walker, Michael Walker, Logan Nelson, Angela Walker and Natalie Nelson.

A service to honor the life of Bob, led by Deacon John Hanna, will be held at 1 p.m. on January 13 at Snodgrass Funeral Home. Family and friends may visit prior to the service from 11 a.m. to 1 p.m.

In lieu of flowers, the family asks that donations be made to Kanawha Hospice Care, 1606 Kanawha Blvd. W., Charleston, WV 25387-2536 or Blessed Sacrament Parish, 305 E. Street, South Charleston, WV 25303.

Memories of Bob may be shared by visiting www.snodgrassfuneral.com and selecting the obituary. Snodgrass Funeral Home is handling the arrangements.
